My dear Mother;-

Well this morning I made arrangements at the shoe store and now for all my mornings I am at the LAW office of Judge Elliston and Mr. Hanlon. THE type writeing that I can do here will amount to quite a little. Latter I will be able to get over the river but for the present I feel that this is a very good place since I can still make practially the same money at the shoe store and yet have the priveledge of being in a law office

Judge Will certianly help me along so you see here is my chance. The dictation that will be given me here and the general knowledge of the law that I am associated with, will be of uncalulateable value to me so that I feel when school opens, I will be able to get through more satisfactorily to my self.

Promising to write again as soon as I receive this weeks letter

I am your boy

Slater
