SCHOOL SEES MONEY NEEDS

Station Pupils Get Work on Several Projects

BY TEACHER

Teachers at the station school, with about 40 pupils, under the leadership of Mrs. Louise Smith, teacher, saw several projects needed to be done and they needed some play equipment and realized it would take some money to accomplish their project. First, they raised some money from their parents and sold school lunches. Then, they put on a minstrel show which they charged a small admission fee. They bought some magazines and sold them. Last week they purchased a plot of ground for building a park on the grounds where they will
